OSCE media representative concerned about trial of Danish journalists for publishing leaked information

VIENNA, 22 November 2006 - The OSCE Representative on Freedom of the Media, Miklós Haraszti, said today that he was concerned about the trial of three Danish journalists charged with publishing classified information.

The journalists, reporters Michael Bjerre and Jesper Larsen, as well as editor Niels Lunde, work for the Danish newspaper, Berlingske Tidende. Based on leaked classified information, they published articles about the amount of information possessed by the Danish government on the existence of weapons of mass destruction in Iraq in 2003. They face a fine or up to two years of prison.

Som aftalt var jeg i kontakt med Mediefrihedsrepræsentanten (RFOM) i lyset af den opmærksomhed hun har udvist for lovforslaget om offentlighed i forvaltningen. Jeg noterede herefter følgende:

“Under en samtale onsdag den 29. med RFOM Dunja Mijatovic henviste jeg til hendes interesse for offentlighedsloven og forsikrede hende om, at vi ville holde hende underrettet om processens videre forløb. Hun takkede for henvendelsen og sagde, at hun havde fuld tillid til, at vi ville holde hende underrettet.”
