

Wednesday 30 September 2015 13:00 - 18:00

Registration deadline: 18 September 2015 24:00 at the latest

Venue:

Alexander Hall, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen,
Bispetorv Annex, Bispetorvet 1-3, DK-1167 Copenhagen K

Organised by

The European and International Criminal Law Research Group, EICRIM, in collaboration with The European Criminal Law Academic Network, ECLAN, and The Danish Foreign Policy Society / Det Udenrigspolitiske Selskab

Conference coordinator:

Professor Jørn Vestergaard, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen

Registration:

<http://jura.ku.dk/english/calendar/2015/european-criminal-law-and-justice/registration/>

Conference on European Criminal Law and Justice - Prospects and Problems

Wednesday 30 September 2015 13:00 - 18:00

Venue: Alexander Hall, Bispetorv Annex, Bispetorvet 1-3, DK-1167 Copenhagen K

12:00-13:00	Doors open
13:00-13:15	Welcome Address Former minister Lykke Friis, Prorector, University of Copenhagen, Chair of the Danish Foreign Policy Society Professor Jørn Vestergaard, University of Copenhagen
13:15-14:00	Professor Katalin Ligeti, University of Luxembourg The Future for an European Public Prosecutor's Office Commentator: State Prosecutor Jesper Hjortenber, Eurojust, National Member for Denmark Chair: Professor Jørn Vestergaard
14:00-14:45	Professor Anne Weyemberg, Université Libre de Bruxelles The EU Justice Agenda for 2020 – Priorities in EU Criminal Law Chair: Associate Professor Iryna Marchuk, University of Copenhagen
14:45-15:15	Break: Coffee and Tea
15:15-16:00	Associate Professor Rebecca Adler-Nissen, University of Copenhagen Opting In or Out of the EU: The Case of Denmark Commentator: Professor Thomas Elholm, University of Southern Denmark Chair: Professor Jørn Vestergaard
16:00-16:45	Postdoc Samuli Miettinen, University of Helsinki Opting In or Out of the EU: The Case of UK Commentator: Professor Sabine Gless, University of Basel Chair: Professor Robert Kert, Wirtschaftsuniversität Wien
17:00-17:45	Speaker: Professor Valsamis Mitsilegas, Queen Mary University of London Privacy in an Era of Surveillance
17:45-18:00	Conclusions and Closure Summation by Professor Pedro Cairo, University of Coimbra Chair: Professor Jørn Vestergaard