

Dear colleagues,

Last Monday, the Dutch House of Representatives had a full-day plenary debate with the Prime Minister, the Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Minister of Defence on the current crisis in Ukraine. In the Netherlands we are not used to filing common resolutions, but instead the following motions were approved by an (often large) majority (below also the link to the motion and voting result in Dutch):

A Motion

- on setting up a trust fund with the frozen assets from Russia, Belarus and oligarchs in order to have funds available for the reconstruction of Ukraine -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03897&did=2022D07973>
- on pleading within the EU to extend the scope of the sanctions package -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03892&did=2022D07967>
- on mapping out the expected collateral damage to the Dutch economy and households -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03882&did=2022D07955>
- on generous support for Poland and other neighbouring countries in providing humanitarian aid -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03885&did=2022D07958>
- on identifying with emergency aid organizations the need for emergency aid in the field of logistics, education, care and other sectors -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03895&did=2022D07970>
- on steering like-minded countries towards creating a mechanisms for gathering evidence of international crimes -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03890&did=2022D07965>
- on showing leniency with regard to the maximum term of residence for Ukrainian citizens -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03891&did=2022D07966>
- on urgently preparing large reception capacity in the Netherlands for Asylum seekers -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03889&did=2022D07964>
- on removing bottlenecks that prevent intelligence and security services from protecting the Netherlands against countries with an offensive cyber program -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03893&did=2022D07968>
- on measures to counter the structures that allow money laundering, circulating and evasion -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03887&did=2022D07960>
- on investigating whether political parties, politicians and interest groups in the Netherlands are financed with money from the Russian Federation or with money from Russian (legal) persons -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03888&did=2022D07962>
- on examining what is necessary and possible in the short term to allow the anticipated increase in the defence budget to take place earlier -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03880&did=2022D07953>
- on the Russian people being spared in the implementation of sanctions -
<https://www.tweedekamer.nl/kamerstukken/moties/detail?id=2022Z03884&did=2022D07957>

Best wishes,

Janneke Timmer

Representative of the Dutch House of Representatives to the European Union
Parlementair Vertegenwoordiger van de Tweede Kamer bij de Europese Unie

European Parliament, Rue Montoyer 70, MTY 04R004, B-1047 Brussels, Belgium
T +(32) 2 2831243 | M +(31) 6 11030028 | E janneke.timmer@natparl.ep.europa.eu